

1. According to the pre-millennial view, following the rapture comes a period of _____ years which is called the _____.
2. This view comes, in part, from their interpretation of Daniel chapter _____. Daniel has been reading from the prophet _____ that the captivity in Babylon will last _____ years, which is now nearly over.
3. In answer to Daniel's prayer, Gabriel comes to bring a message about the city of _____. His message speaks of the history of the city in lengths of time called _____. The first period is _____ sevens, the second is _____ sevens, and the third is _____ seven.
4. The period of the sevens begins with the decree to _____ Jerusalem. The first period appears to cover the time of rebuilding.
5. The second period of sevens ends, and thus the last seven begins with the coming of the _____ one. The last seven ends with the _____ of the city. Jesus referred to this event in his comments recorded in Matthew _____.
6. When properly understood, therefore, there is no time left to be fulfilled from this prophecy and so it should not be used to suggest a period of seven years of _____.
7. Since God's promise to Israel about the land was conditioned upon their faithfulness, Jesus declared in Matthew 21:43 that "the _____ of God will be taken away from you. Thus there are no more remaining promises to the Jews about the _____ of Israel.
8. Daniel 11, which speaks of war over Israel, was fulfilled during the time _____ the _____ when there was war between _____ and _____. This is not about a war over Israel just before the end of the world.
9. 1 Corinthians 15:22-26 teaches the following:
 - a. _____ is the first one raised never to die again.
 - b. At His coming, He will raise those who _____ to Him. As we saw in John 5:28-29, when these are raised, all others will also be _____. John 6:40 teaches that the righteous will be raised on the _____ day.
 - c. Since that is true, Christ's return, when these are raised, cannot be followed by another thousand years of time.
 - d. When Christ returns, then comes the _____ when He shall return the _____ to the Father.
 - e. The last enemy to be conquered is _____ and, since that conquest comes when Christ returns, He has no reason to continue to reign. It is time for the _____ kingdom.
10. The judgment of Revelation 20:11-15 is of both the _____ and the _____ and thus, is the final judgment of all.