

OPPORTUNITIES TO CONSIDER FOR HOW YOU WILL "TELL."

Mark with X those you already do; mark with a check those you will start to do.

1. Say something to a family member about the Sunday sermon. _____
2. Say something to a friend who does not attend about the Sunday sermon. _____
3. Mention to a co-worker where you go to church. _____
4. Invite a neighbor for coffee or a meal and say something about where you go to church. _____
5. Invite a newcomer to your neighborhood to attend church with you. _____
6. Start a home Bible study with a couple of other families and seek to bring some who are outside of the church to the study. _____
7. Hand something about the church or an upcoming church event to a friend with an invitation to come. _____
8. Use a newspaper story as a beginning point to start a religious discussion by saying "Did you notice the story today about. . . ." _____
9. Invite a neighbor's children to your VBS and follow that activity with an invitation to the family to come to church. _____
10. Start a one-on-one Bible study with someone. _____
11. Tell a friend about the good things your youth group is doing. _____
12. Grade correspondence courses like WBS or courses in prison work. _____
13. Visit a jail or prison to teach inmates. _____
14. Help bring to church those at a "half-way house" or "pre-release center." _____
15. Determine that you will bring comments about church or scripture or Christians you know to a more frequent level in your conversations. _____
16. Teach a class at church at any age level where you have the opportunity to "tell" about being a Christian. _____
17. Start a Bible class at work before or after work or during the lunch hour. _____
18. If your congregation has an inner-city work, help with a Bible class there. _____
19. Start a book club that reads a book and discusses it and introduce a book that will get you into good discussions of religious issues. _____
20. In conversations with your hair dresser or barber, tell about the church. _____
21. Mention something about church or something happening there where you eat or shop. _____
22. Mention something about church to someone you sit with at sporting events. _____
23. Speak of something about church to people with whom you play sports or where you coach. _____
24. Pray every day that God will open a door for you to bring a particular friend to Christ and that you will have the determination to pursue this goal in effective ways. _____